Dear Parents,

Warm greetings from Sanawar!

I trust that this finds you and the family in the very best of health and circumstances.

It is with the greatest pleasure that I take this opportunity to share that our students are very well and happy at the School. As I type this, Cricket, Swimming, Tennis, Squash, Badminton, Coding, Art as well as the Founder's practice is in full swing.
I am very pleased to inform you that the Parent Teacher Meeting for all students will be held on Wednesday, the 3rd of September, '25 in the Birdwood School.

The Parent Teacher Meeting presents the best opportunity for parents to interact with the subject teachers and get first-hand information about the academic as well as the all-round progress of their child. We sincerely encourage parents to attend this most important meeting, to make the best use of this forum and set targets in collaboration with their children as well as receive important feedback regarding their academic as well as the all-round development.
